ST. ELIZABETH CATHOLIC CHURCH

HOLY COMPANIONS / NUESTROS SANTOS COMPAÑEROS

Revelation/Apocalipsis 7:2-4,9-14

1 John/Juan 3:1-3

Matthew/ Mateo 5:1-12

Today we celebrate a victory feast, the solemnity of All Saints. It is a day to celebrate our call to holiness and the victory that is promised us through our faith in Christ. It is a day to remember all our brothers and sisters in heaven, to remember the holiness of their lives, to celebrate our communion with them, and be encouraged by their example of faith, hope and love.

As Catholics we also remember how our brothers and sister in heaven, the saints, intercede for us. It is our belief that when we pray to the saints (i.e. ask for their intercession) they assist us in our prayers. We do not see them as substitutes for the Father-Son-Holy Spirit nor do we worship Mary and the saints as some religious groups claim we do. Granted, some Catholics may have an exaggerated devotion to some of the saints, but they do not represent our faith.

Are you named after a saint or have a special patron saint? Find out who they are and why they are seen as an example of holiness for us. There are many resources (books and online) that can help you.

We celebrate today that our holy companions in heaven share in the victory of Christ. We hope to share in that glory with them one day.

Fr. Edwin

Hoy celebramos una fiesta de victoria, el solemne día de Todos los Santos. Que nos llama a celebrar la santidad y la Victoria que se nos prometió por medio de nuestra fe en Cristo. Es un día para recordar a todos nuestros hermanos y hermanas ya en el cielo, a no olvidar la santidad de sus vidas, celebrar nuestra comunión con ellos, y así ser fortalecidos por su ejemplo de fe, esperanza y amor.

Como católicos también recordemos a nuestros hermanos y hermanas en el cielo para que intercedan por nosotros. Es nuestra creencia que cuando oramos a los santos (es decir suplicando por su intercesión) ellos nos escuchan y ayudan. Nosotros no los vemos como sustitutos del Padre-Hijo- Espíritu Santo. Respetamos y veneramos a María y a los santos pero no practicamos la idolatría como otros grupos religiosos dicen que hacemos. Algunos católicos pueden ser exageradamente devotos hacia algunos de los santos, pero esos católicos no representan exactamente nuestra fe.

¿Te bautizaron con el nombre de un santo? ¿Tienes un santo de tu especial devoción? Si quieres puedes averiguar quienes fueron esos santos y por qué son vistos como un ejemplo. Hay muchas maneras (libros y en el web) que te pueden ayudar.

Hoy celebramos que nuestros santos compañeros en el cielo compartan la Victoria de Cristo. Nosotros esperamos compartir también esa gloria con ellos algún día.

P. Edwin

BLACK CATHOLICS BRING BACK ANCIENT RITES TO THE CHURCH.

The Catholic church in Africa recognized that adults preparing for baptism, confirmation and Eucharist needed to receive more than a short course to prepare for a lifestyle of following Christ. They were inspired by the ancient catechumenate process, which involved the whole church community supporting, praying and celebrating with the catechumens over a period of time. The results were so successful that in 1972 they applied to the Church leaders at the Vatican to bring back the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults for the whole Church.

Today, adults interested in joining the Catholic Church and receive the sacraments of initiation are better prepared to follow Christ and are integrated into the life of the Church community. Join us, Tuesday 7:00-8:30 PM, Parish Center, Terrace Room. Shelly Morrison, R.C.I.A. Director.

GOOD-BYE, FR. KIZITO!!! ¡¡¡ADIOS P. KIZITO!!!

For two months we have been blessed with the presence of Fr. Kizito in our parish and on Tuesday he returns to his family and church in Uganda. How happy they must all be to see him again, even though we are saddened to see him leave. How wonderful it is for us to have such a connection to the Catholic community in Uganda through Fr. Kizito. Through the intercession of the Ugandan Martyrs may we all grow in our dedication to Christ and the Gospel.

May God bless him with a safe journey home. Until his next visit to California, we pray that God bless and guide his ministry in Uganda.

Por los últimos dos meses hemos tenido la bendición de tener la presencia del P. Kizito en nuestra parroquia y el martes regresa a su familia y iglesia en Uganda. Que felicidad de ellos volverlo a ver, y nosotros nos quedamos tristes de verlo irse. Que maravilloso es tener esta conexión con la comunidad católica de Uganda por medio del P. Kizito. Por la intercesión de los Mártires Ugandeses pueda que todos crezcamos en nuestra dedicación a Cristo y al Evangelio.

Que Dios lo bendiga en su jornada a casa y lo guíe en su ministerio en Uganda.

NO MISA ESTE MIÉRCOLES...

Este miércoles (el 4 de noviembre) no tendremos misa (tenemos la misa especial el lunes a las 7pm y la misa del primer viernes a las 7:30pm).

Sixth grade homeroom teacher Mrs. Aubrey Moeller guides her new students into the world of Junior High. In Junior High, students practice remembering schedules, managing assignments for different teachers, and getting the right books from their locker, all of this in preparation for high school.

Mrs. Moeller's classroom is a safe haven for the sixth graders to learn about transitioning between classrooms and having a different teacher for each of their core subjects, like math, science, and history.

Mrs. Moeller also teaches seventh and eighth grade math. Filled with numbers, math symbols, and predictions of World Series winners, Mrs. Moeller's classroom introduces students to the complex numbers, algebra and geometry. Students learn math with a real-world emphasis on projects like designing, manufacturing, and marketing new products and redesigning the lunch menu at school based on student surveys.

In her sixth grade religion class, Mrs. Moeller teaches the Old Testament which integrates knowledge they acquire while studying ancient civilizations in social studies. Students research and make collages of the saint who shares their birthday. The class initiated a penny war with the rest of the junior high to raise money for the Holy Childhood Association and Father Kizito's missions in Uganda. They recently represented Saint Elizabeth at a special children's mass at the Los Angeles Cathedral. Today they are leading the 10:15 Mass. Let them lead us in the magic of numbers to count our many blessings.

The pew plaques have been installed in the church a few weeks ago. We give thanks to those parishioners who were generous to St. Elizabeth during our capital campaign. If you know someone on one of the plaques, say "thank you" to them for their support of the parish.
