Isaiah/Isaías 40:1-5,9-11

Titus/Tito 2:11-14,3:4-7

Luke/Lucas 3:15-16,21-22

Today we see Jesus being baptized by John the Baptist. Through the waters of baptism and the descent of the Spirit Jesus' public ministry for the salvation of all commences. We rejoice to see the work of salvation!

We who have been baptized and anointed by the Spirit are also called to service of others and to continue to work for the salvation of all. Today is a special day for all of us to reflect on our sacred call to serve Christ and proclaim the Reign of God. All of us without exception!

The Church throughout our nation is also asking us to reflect on and earnestly pray for specific Church vocations: ordained priesthood and vowed religious life. These vocations offer a special energy and service in the Church that complement the variety of lay ministries in the Church.

The Church is in great need of an increase in the number of priests and vowed religious. Every parish and Catholic school used to have several priests and many sisters (and sometimes brothers) serving the people. These numbers have dropped significantly today. Where are the priests and religious going to come from who will be serving you and your children in the future? They come from your families, they are your sons and daughters. They are not hatched or imported from others planets. Our young people need to be prayed for and encouraged to consider a Church vocation. They need to be taught that a successful and fulfilled life comes not from the amount of money or power one amasses. It comes from how we served others.

May we all be guided by the call to serve Christ and the Church in our respective vocations, rooted in our baptism and confirmation. May our young people (including your own children!) feel encouraged and supported to give their lives in service not only in lay ministries, but also as ordained priests and vowed religious.

Fr. Edwin

Hoy vemos a Jesús siendo bautizados por Juan Bautista. Por esas aguas bautismales descendió el Espíritu Santo para que Jesús se convirtiera en ministerio público como salvador de todos nosotros. ¡Nos alegramos de ver la obra de la salvación!

Nosotros que hemos sido bautizados y ungidos por el Espíritu Santo también somos llamados a servir a otros y continuar trabajando para la salvación de todos. Hoy es un día especial que nos invita a reflexionar en nuestro sagrado llamado de servir a Cristo y proclamar el Reino de Dios. ¡ Para todos nosotros, sin excepción!

La Iglesia en la nación también pide a todos reflexionar y orar fervorosamente para que hayan más vocaciones eclesiales específicas: el sacerdocio y los devotos a una vida religiosa. Estas vocaciones ofrecen una energía y servicio especial que complementan la variedad de ministerios laicos en la Iglesia.

La Iglesia está en gran necesidad de un aumento en el número de sacerdotes y religiosos/as. En tiempos pasados cada parroquia y escuela católica tenía varios sacerdotes y a muchas monjitas (y a veces monjes) sirviendo a las personas. Estos números ahora han disminuido significativamente. ¿De dónde van a venir los sacerdotes y los religiosos/as, que le servirán a usted y a sus niños en el futuro? Ellos provendrán de tu familia, son tus hijos e hijas. Ellos no son incubados de un huevo ni vienen importados de otros planetas. Debemos orar y animar a nuestros jóvenes para que consideren ingresar a una vocación eclesial. A ellos se les debe enseñar que una vida exitosa no viene del dinero y el poder acumulado. Ella viene de cómo servimos a otros.

Sigamos el llamado de servir a Cristo y a la Iglesia en nuestras respectivas vocaciones, fundamentadas en nuestro bautismo y confirmación. Que nuestros jóvenes (¡incluyendo a tus niños!) se sientan animados y apoyados de dar sus vidas al servicio no solo en los ministerios laicos, pero como sacerdotes ordenados y religiosos/as.

P. Edwin

PARISH FINANCE UPDATES...

During this time in which we are in a very tight financial situation some people felt that it would be good to once again put in weekly Sunday income reports in the bulletin. On an average, we need a regular Sunday income of at least $14,000 to stay in the black [especially now that we're trying to heat the church!].

If you are interested in making your weekly donations electronically (E.F.T.) please contact our parish business manager.

Your regular weekly donations are very much needed and appreciated; they are an investment in your community of faith.

Durante este tiempo en el que estamos en una situación bastante escasa algunas personas piensan que es una buena idea poner otra vez los informes semanales de ingresos del domingo en el boletín. En un promedio, nosotros necesitamos un ingreso regular de por lo menos $14,000 para estar haciendo ganancias [especialmente ahora que estamos usando la calefacción en la iglesia]

Si usted está interesado en hacer sus donaciones electrónicamente (E.F.T.) por favor comuníquese con nuestra administradora de la iglesia. Sus donativos semanales regulares son necesarios y apreciados; estos son una inversión en su comunidad de fe.

Did You Know?

Always Keep an Up-to-Date Photo of Your Child

Picture this: A good photo could save a child's life. One of the most important tools for law enforcement in the case of a missing child is an up-to-date (take a new one every six months), good-quality photograph. The photograph should be a recent head-and-shoulders color photograph of the child in which the face is clearly seen. It should be of school-portrait quality, and the background should be plain or solid so it does not distract from the subject. When possible, the photograph should be in a digitized form and available on a compact disk (CD), as opposed to just a hard copy. This minimizes the time necessary to scan, resize, and make color corrections before disseminating it to law enforcement. The photograph should have space for accurate, narrative description useful to identify the child, such as name, nickname, height, weight, sex, age, eye color, identifying marks, glasses, and braces. For more information, please visit: www.missingkids.com.

¿Sabía Usted?

Siempre Mantenga Una Fotografía Actual de Sus Hijos

Una fotografía actualizada y en buenas condiciones es una de las herramientas más importantes que las autoridades pueden utilizar en el caso de un niño perdido. La fotografía del niño debe ser reciente, de cabeza a hombros, la cara bien visible y a color. Debe tener la calidad de un "retrato escolar", y el fondo debe ser claro o de color oscuro para que no distraiga del sujeto. Si es posible, la fotografía debería estar disponible no solamente en papel, sino también en forma digital y en un disco compacto (CD). Esto disminuirá considerablemente el tiempo necesario para cambiar el tamaño, copiar, y corregir el color de la fotografía antes de entregarla a las autoridades. La fotografía debe ser actualizada por lo menos cada seis meses para los niños menores de 6 años, y después una vez al año o cada vez que los niños cambian de aspecto. Para obtener ayuda, llame a la Oficina del Ministerio de Ayuda al 213 637 7650.
