Youth Code of Behavior

1. Alcoholic beverages and/or illegal drugs are not allowed. If you are found under the influence or in possession of alcohol or drugs your parent(s) will be called and you may be sent home at your family's expense.
2. No tobacco of any kind may be possessed or used on any youth activity.
3. No fireworks or firearms are allowed.
4. If you damage church or activity establishment property, you will pay for it.
5. You are expected to follow and support rules that are established by the adult leaders, or by the managers of the facilities used. The staff and site supervisors have the right and responsibility of correcting any problems they encounter.
6. Youth are responsible for keeping track of their own property. All Saints is not responsible for lost, stolen, or broken items. You may bring personal headsets and CD or MP3 players, but are asked to leave boom boxes and other audio equipment at home
7. Participants are expected to stay at the designated activity facilities at all times. Participants are expected to be at scheduled activities and to be with our group. Participants are not to go anywhere away from the group without notifying the director.
8. Romantic behavior and sexual activity are inappropriate while on youth activities.
9. All youth must bring in all necessary paperwork including forms needed as character references or background checks, signed emergency/authorization forms, and, those who are under 18, any necessary prescription medication forms and the notarized parent/ guardian consent form. The medication forms should not be returned till June or July so they are current. These forms are for the youth's safety and are a legal necessity for the parish.
